Commitment to Service Members and Their Families

The Housing Assistance for Veterans (HAVEN) program, through Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas members, helps fund improvements or modifications to homes of U.S. veterans and active-duty, reserve or national guard service members who became disabled as a result of their military service since September 11, 2001.

- Provides up to $10,000 in grant funds per household
- Is open to all veterans or service members injured during military service since 9/11
- Is open to Gold Star families who lost a family member in service since 9/11
- May be used to assist families at or below 165 percent of the area median income
- May be used for properties throughout the United States
- Requires no member contribution
- Is awarded on a first-come, first-served basis

Rebuilding Lives

Examples of HAVEN uses:

- Modifying an existing home to meet the needs of a U.S. veteran or service member
- Offsetting construction costs of a newly constructed home
- Paying for a third-party inspection

"There was a level of ease in applying. I'm not sure why anybody wouldn't want to use HAVEN."

— Cheryl Bruce, Founder & Executive Director
Wounded Warriors of Mississippi

Welcome to Your Safe HAVEN

"When you help a veteran through this program it is very special. The HAVEN grant is a small token to thank veterans and their families for the sacrifices they've made to keep us safe and secure."

— Virgil Miller, Group CRA Director, ARVEST Bank Operations
ARVEST Bank

"It's been important for PriorityOne to participate in the HAVEN program. We have an obligation to help people in our community. When we find programs like HAVEN that can improve quality of life and provide a financial hand up, it shows the strong power and sense of community within our bank."

— Robbie Barnes, President and CEO
PriorityOne Bank

"Texas Capital Bank is proud to support our veterans, and we are happy to partner with FHLB Dallas on the HAVEN program. A big part of our company's mission is supporting the communities we serve and being able to do it in this way is incredibly rewarding."

— Effie Dennison, Vice President and Director of Community Development and Corporate Social Responsibility
Texas Capital Bank
