

The Original MAC Advance

Lowest-Cost Advance for Maximum Value

The Maximum Advantage with Convenience (MAC) advance is currently our lowest-cost advance. The MAC advance includes the convenience of a reminder to re-book at maturity. Available in terms of 8, 13 or 26 weeks, the MAC advance is a non-amortizing, fixed-rate funding alternative priced at a spread above the FHLB Discount Note Index.

BENEFITS

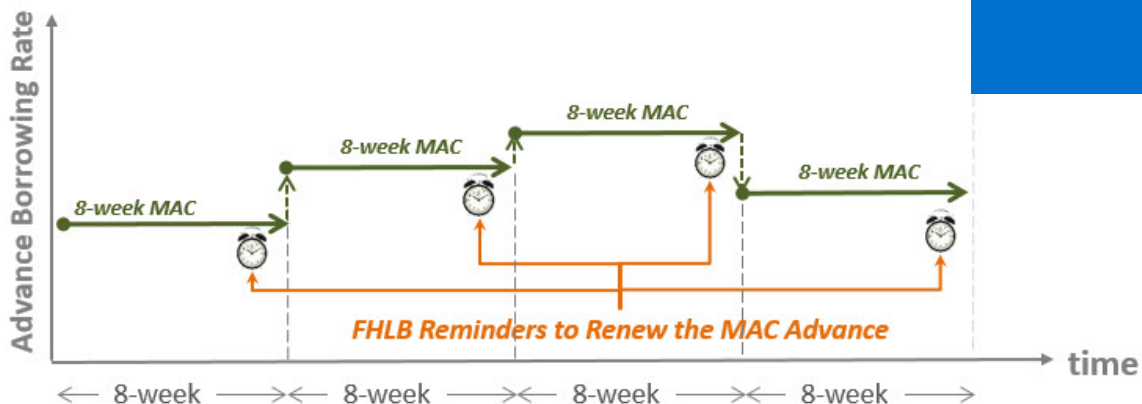

- Favorable pricing
- Notification and rate indications provided two days prior to advance availability
- Available on Tuesdays and Thursdays for next-day settlement
- Most economical short-term advance available

How the Product Works

We will notify your institution by email two days prior to the upcoming maturity of the MAC advance. The notification will include the terms and conditions, including the spread, on your next MAC advance.

Availability

- 8-, 13- or 26-week maturity
- $50 Million minimum transaction size
- Available on Tuesdays and Thursdays for next-day settlement
