Project Description Example

The 2025 Homeownership Project is Phase 1 of an affordable housing development by Holiday Homebuilders CDC, consisting of 10 single family homes on 2 contiguous blocks in Irving, Texas. Each home will be roughly 1320 square feet with 3 bedrooms and 2 full baths. All 10 homes will be sold to first-time homebuyers with incomes at or below 80% of the area median income. The total project cost will be $900,000.00. FHLB funds will be used for down payment/closing cost assistance, which is one of the major impediments to homeownership for the income groups targeted. Other funding sources will be leveraged as needed to make the homes affordable for individuals below 60% of AMI. The project will be 100% new construction located in the SunnySide neighborhood of Irving, Texas. The area has had no new development in over 20 years and this project will improve the housing stock of the area as well as provide much-needed affordable housing. The homes will be located within a 6-block radius of grocery stores and other retail situated along a major North-South arterial street. A major medical district is located within 3 miles of the subject neighborhood and commercial offices and warehouse facilities are available within 5 miles, providing potential employment opportunities for the subject homebuyers. The SunnySide neighborhood is also located in a Midtown Redevelopment Plan "designated redevelopment area" that was adopted by the City of Irving in May 2023.

Homebuyer Counseling Example 2

ABC Housing provides a comprehensive housing counseling service to assist low- and moderate-income families obtain mortgages and home improvement loans. This program includes individual financial counseling, credit counseling, consumer education, delinquency counseling, and community meetings.

The program provides the following services:

1. Identify low- and moderate-income eligible purchasers of single-family, small multi-family, cooperative unit, and condominium unit properties.
2. Assist purchasers in identifying potential properties for purchase.
3. Prepare potential purchasers in making application at the bank, by reviewing income, employment history, debts, credit history, projected housing payments, estimated settlement costs, and purchase documents.
4. Provide a regular program of Credit and Budgeting Classes, to assist people with credit problems or people without enough savings for downpayment and settlement costs.
5. Provide a longer term, individualized plan for people with credit problems to re-establish their credit.
6. Sponsor one ABC Housing Bank Fair each year to educate interested low- and moderate-income people about the services provided by banks and opportunities available.
7. Sponsor a Housing Fair to link up interested buyers with properties for sale.
8. Sponsor community meetings to inform low- and moderate-income people about the homebuying process and the opportunities in the ABC Housing program.
9. Provide an aggressive marketing program aimed at minority and low to moderate income buyers.
10. Provide delinquency counseling to any ABC Housing referred families who have problems with late payment of their mortgage.

The Housing Counseling Service

New clients will enter the program in a group intake session, where they will learn the basics of homeownership and a survey of available programs to match their needs. They will turn in basic financial information and the housing counselor will create a file for each client. After the group intake, the counselor will pull up a credit report, do a financial review of the file, and then set up a one-on-one interview. There is a twenty dollar charge for a credit report.

With the client, the ABC Housing counselor will review the client's sources of income and establish whether they are adequate to support home purchase and how much house payment the family can afford. If the income is inadequate, ABC Housing will work with the client to get cosigners to increase available household income, or to locate a more affordable property.

Member driven.
Community focused.

The counselor will review the client's total debt to determine if the client will be overextending him or herself. If the debt exceeds normal lending limits, ABC Housing will work with the people to pay off debts, refinance loans, or increase household income.

The counselor will do a credit review of the client, based on the credit report and information the client provides. Each ABC Housing office pulls a "triple merged" credit report. For people with credit problems, the counselor will work with them on establishing good credit, payment plans, negotiating with creditors, and writing letters of explanation. All people with credit problems or who need to save funds for downpayment and settlement costs will attend the Credit and Budgeting classes. The classes are organized around the actual budgets of the participating families. The classes will assist the family in setting realistic financial goals, developing savings and repayment plans, and establishing a solid understanding of credit responsibilities.

In the interview, each family will get a personalized financial plan from the housing counselor, which will consist of a few achievable goals to move them toward home ownership. ABC Housing has experience documenting unconventional income sources, such as self-employment, part-time work, and "off the books" income. ABC Housing has developed the standard on "cash on hand" or funds saved at home, often the result of the absence of bank branches in lower income neighborhoods.

The counselor will calculate the monthly loan payment, including taxes and homeowners insurance, and apply the appropriate income and debt ratios. If the real estate agent has not already done so, the counselor will figure out the settlement costs for the future homebuyer. ABC Housing seeks out downpayment and settlement cost assistance grants for low income buyers through local Community Development Block Grant programs, the Affordable Housing Program of the Federal Home Loan Bank, and other sources. Some buyers may be able to finance some of these costs through a personal loan.

Once the client's financial package is in order, ABC Housing will make a loan referral to a lender. The counselor will familiarize the applicant with the loan terminology needed to understand the bank loan process. Each client signs a confidentiality waiver form which permits ABC Housing representatives to discuss the client's finances and credit with the bank. Finally, the counselor will detail what documents the client needs to bring for the loan application interview with the lender. Typically, loan applications are taken at the ABC Housing office.

Once the client has been qualified for mortgage, ABC Housing will begin marketing program houses to the future homebuyer and will enter into a purchase agreement with the homebuyer. ABC Housing will tailor home payments to the needs of the buyer, using available downpayment grants and other subsidies to make the home as affordable as possible for the buyer.

Member driven.
Community focused.

If an application runs into trouble, the housing counselor will intercede with the loan underwriter and see what can be done to straighten out the problem. Counselors will discuss complex or unusual cases with underwriters to determine documentation requirements, structuring of loans, and appropriateness of particular deals.

Finally, after a deal has been approved and closed, ABC Housing will maintain a relationship and will provide post-purchase or delinquency counseling if it is ever needed. ABC Housing relies on lenders to code ABC Housing loans separately, to keep track of any delinquencies and provide monthly reports of any late payments. ABC Housing clients give written permission for disclosing this information to ABC Housing.

Program Marketing

Good housing counseling programs succeed not just on the basis of the counseling, but also on the skill of getting people to use the program. ABC Housing Corporation recruits potential buyers through the following means:

Home Buyers Show: ABC Housing will get potential buyers together with real estate agents, bankers, and housing counselors at the Home Buyers Show. This is a neighborhood event, held in a church or community center, where interested people can look at lists of available properties, participate in a homebuying workshop run by lenders, a real estate attorney, and ABC Housing counselors, figure out if they are ready for homebuying, and get started in the ABC Housing program.

ABC HOUSING Bank Fair: Each year, ABC Housing cosponsors the ABC HOUSING Bank Fair. The program will involve major local banks and the agenda will include workshops on such topics as Getting a Mortgage, Home Improvement Loans, Small Business Loans, Credit and Credit Problems, and Homeownership Opportunities. The ABC HOUSING Bank Fair is usually the largest low and moderate income banking event in the city.

Real Estate Brokers: ABC Housing works closely with real estate companies and property managers who work in the low and moderate income and minority markets. ABC Housing will do mailings, office visits, and real estate breakfasts to bring in participating agents to the program.

Community Meetings: ABC Housing works with community groups in low income and minority neighborhoods. These groups will sponsor community forums to inform residents about the lending opportunities. These meetings, run by community leaders and held in churches, schools, and community centers, are publicized through flyers and the ABC Housing telephone networks.

Public Service Announcements: ABC Housing runs public service announcements in community newspapers and on widely listened to radio stations at least three times a year.

Targeted Outreach: ABC Housing works with individual lenders on targeted marketing efforts, often linked to housing opportunities through real estate agents, or nonprofit developers. These campaigns may involve targeted mailings, flyering efforts, or advertising, designed to take advantage of housing opportunities and to generate loan activity.

Partnership Referrals: ABC Housing works closely with local government, HUD, Fannie Mae and may large lenders in the communities in which we work. These partnerships generate referrals to our programs of people who call these institutions for assistance.

ABC Housing is known for its aggressive marketing. To publicize events, ABC Housing will help distribute 20,000 to 100,000 flyers, through local churches, community businesses, schools, and community groups.

Education is closely linked to marketing. Many first time buyers need to understand the process and feel comfortable. The mortgage process is mystifying to all first time homebuyers, not just low income ones. ABC Housing events are conducted by leaders from the community and ABC Housing counselors who can translate the banker talk into plain English and useful information.

Sponsor Capacity Description Example

ABCD develops affordable housing specializing in the creation of high-quality Affordable Family, Senior and Single Resident Occupancy (SRO) Housing Communities throughout Texas. ABCD has more than 75 years of experience in real estate development, construction and finance. ABCD is affiliated with ABC General Contractor (ABCGC), who has extensive experience building apartments. ABCD along with ABCGC brings unparalleled expertise in the efficient design and construction of housing.

To further accelerate the availability of affordable housing, in 1974, ABCD began purchasing private-sector properties; one of the first was an 11-story, former hotel in downtown Fort Worth, now known as DEF Plaza, which was renovated into 234 affordable units and administrative office space. DEF Plaza was recently redeveloped by ABCD as a mixed-use community with 164 units and 10,000 square feet of commercial space. DEF Plaza exemplifies the commitment of ABCD to deconcentrate poverty by creating mixed-income neighborhoods that include the educational and employment resources essential to self-sufficiency, family stability and economic success. ABCD is also focused on changing the face of public housing, making numerous upgrades to existing properties and facilities. Each initiative is in furtherance of ABCD's mission of developing housing solutions where people flourish. Through two decades of redevelopment projects, including very intensive RAD-related construction over the past few years, ABCD has gained the types of relevant experiences essential to CNI success. In partnership with residents, stakeholders, developers and HUD, ABCD has built high-quality mixed-income communities that feature resources and amenities matched to resident needs and aspirations. ABCD also has taken maximum advantage of all available funding sources, including consistent use of 9% and 4% LIHTC, Tax Increment Financing (TIF), HOME, and conventional financing. Through these aggregate experiences, the strong capacity of our leadership team has driven positive results, and their collective expertise will produce similar, highly positive outcomes in the new construction build of DSA property.

ABCD partners with industry leaders in finance, architecture, engineering, construction, property management and resident service providers to deliver superior residential real estate projects. Our capabilities include establishing goals and objectives, assessing existing housing inventory, creating strategies, and determining financial feasibility. We also do:

Land Acquisition: conduct due diligence including reviewing preliminary title reports, environmental conditions, government restrictions, prepare purchase contracts.

Site Development: Create conceptual design, verify, confirm utilities capacity, and assess cost efficiency, compatibility with neighboring communities.

Member driven.
Community focused.

Architectural Design: Establish appropriate mix of housing and other uses, integrate energy and environmentally efficient design features, provide ample community space for implementing resident services programs and produce construction documents.

Construction Management: Preliminary budgeting and scheduling, define scopes of work, bidding, sub-contractor qualification, contract preparation, construction documentation, weekly meetings, reporting, critical paths, value engineering, budgets, draw requests, work authorization.

Property Management: Manage all aspects of day-to-day operations. This includes, but is not limited to: managing the physical premises, collecting rent & fees, repairs, etc.

ABCD has completed several major housing development projects targeting low-and moderate-income households. A summary of those developments is shown below:

- XYZ Development Project: In 2018, 4 dilapidated buildings were rehabilitated, creating 120 units of housing for very low-income families and four 1,800 square foot commercial spaces. This project represented the first phase of a broader revitalization program in Sulfur Springs, Texas.
- The Wrigleyville Project: This project was completed in 2019 and rehabilitated six brick-front properties to create 28 apartments for low income and homeless residents. Special funds were provided to the project management for the development and administration of social services and referral programs.
- FHLB HELP Project: ABCD built and sold 60 units of affordable housing in Paris, Texas in 2020.
- The Rental Project: Provided 14 apartments for very low-income residents, along with a residential treatment facility for 4 developmentally disabled adults in 2022.
- Nelson Revitalization Project: Involved 44 units in 6 separate buildings, through the Neighborhood Redevelopment Program (NRP). Four of the six buildings required gut rehabilitation. Out of the 44 units, 38 units involved the relocation of tenants. The $5.6 million project was funded using Low-Income Housing Tax Credits.
- Joe Pool Lake Project: Involved the acquisition of 62 units of Affordable Housing from the Housing Authority, located in the Pilsen portion of Glendale. This project consists of 31 two-family town houses, located in three, noncontiguous but close, discrete sites. This project was $6.7 million (construction and related cost).
- The XYZ Project rehabilitated a 25-unit veteran's facility in 2022 with VASH funding in Dallas, Texas.

Document List

Evidence of Demand – Documentation should include information describing current local market conditions and demand for the type of housing being developed or proposed. Please include data and other relevant facts that sufficiently demonstrate the need for and viability of the proposed project within the target area(s). Examples would include but not be limited to: market study, waiting list of applicants and/or qualified homebuyers or homeowners in need of the subsidy, etc. Also include a narrative explaining when the subsidy is expected to be fully used and provide evidence to support that assertion such as a timeline, project implementation schedule, etc.

Affordability – For projects utilizing subsidies for acquisition or new construction (wherein AHP subsidies are being requested to cover homebuyer down payment and/or closing costs), please explain the income targeting selected in the application in relation to the average sales price indicated within the application. Provide documentation or narrative to support the need for the project scope and type of units proposed. The application should explain and/or provide examples how the project will make homes affordable for families meeting the income targeting selected within the targeted area(s). This information should include comparable housing prices or occupancy data for the subject's geographic location.

- For acquisition projects or new construction, ensure that the average sales price when multiplied against the number of units agrees to the Uses of Funds or Needs Analysis page within the application.
- For acquisition or new construction projects, ensure that the average sales price agrees to the average sales price entered on the Construction Cost information page. In addition, if the average sales price is less than the average development cost, explain how the organization can build and sell homes for less than the construction cost.

Sponsor Capacity – The application provides an opportunity to write a narrative; however, additional/supplemental information such as resumes must also be submitted. The sponsor capacity is reviewed to ensure that sponsors are qualified and able to perform their responsibilities as described in the project. The organizational resumes should list other housing projects or programs that the primary sponsor of the project has previously developed or coordinated, including the names of such projects, the number of units and total development cost, completion date, target population (such as low income, elderly, homeless, etc.) and the roles of the primary sponsor and key personnel along with their qualifications (resumes).

Evidence of Affirmative Marketing Program – Provide documentation and/or narrative to support how the project will be affirmatively marketed and comply with federal, state and local fair housing laws. Describe how the public will be informed such as commercial media, brochures, signs and community contacts/organizations. Submit examples of marketing items and/or a list of publications and media used to promote the project to its target market, if available.

Evidence of Site Control (New Construction Only) – Provide the Site Control documentation selected in the application. (i.e. Warranty Deed, Contract for Deed, Contract for Lease, Purchase Option, Option to Lease, or Letter of Intent). If the Sponsor does not have control of the site(s), the application provides an opportunity to enter a narrative describing when site control is expected to occur. Submit any documentation that would further support the narrative. Documents must be executed by both the seller and buyer.

Development Cost Budget (New Construction) – Provide a detailed development cost budget. Categorize the budget in such a way that it agrees to the Uses of Funds statement or Needs Analysis in the application. In addition, the average Development cost per home on the Construction Cost information page within the application when totaled against the number of units in the project must agree to the Uses of Funds statement or Needs Analysis.

Development Cost Budget (Rehabilitation) – Provide a detailed rehabilitation cost budget. Although all homes may not be identified at time of application, the detailed budget should provide an estimation of the cost for various needed repairs based upon homes already identified and/or historical information. The total on the rehabilitation budget must agree to the Uses of Funds statement within the application. At the time of application for all owner-occupied projects involving rehabilitation in which the project sponsor is also the developer or contractor of the project and the total project cost per home exceeds $15,000, the Bank will utilize RSMeans building cost data or require two independent bids as a benchmark to determine reasonable project costs. The rehabilitation cost of a submitted project may not exceed RSMeans building cost data by more than 5%.

Point Substantiation:

Documentation is required for the categories below if the application received points in that category. Please refer to the Project Summary page within the application to determine if points were received.

Donated Property

For property to be considered donated, the property must be donated or conveyed by an entity not owned or controlled by the member, project sponsor or project owner. If it is a related party donation, please select "No" to the question "Does this project involve any donated property?"

For eligible donated property, provide the applicable Act of Donation, Warranty Deed or Quit Claim Deed that demonstrates the donation.

If the percentage donated is less than 100%, submit the necessary documentation to evidence the donated percentage. For properties donated or conveyed at a discount (at least 50%) to fair market value, an appraisal within six months prior to the closing or transfer date is required. (If the property is not transferred at the time of application, the value will be determined based on the purchase and sales agreement or option to purchase. After the property is transferred, the actual price and value will be reconfirmed.)

Sponsor Type

Not-for-Profit – 501c3 – IRS Documentation

Tribally Designated Housing Entity (TDHE) documentation or Certification Letter

Housing Authority – Resolution or Articles of Incorporation

Promotion of Empowerment

Provide a narrative detailing the empowerment services, which should address the following:

- 1) Describe the empowerment services being offered and how they will be provided (i.e. group session, 1-on-1 mentoring, etc.);
- 2) Outline the goals of the empowerment offerings, including the expected outcome(s) and the relevancy/benefit to the resident population;
- 3) Detail the qualifications and experience of the service provider in delivering the services;
- 4) Explain of the frequency of delivery, location of the services to be provided, transportation options if services are not provided on-site, how the services will be funded, and cost of the services to residents; AND
- 5) Detail how fulfillment of the empowerment service(s) will be verified and documented
- 6) If empowerment services are conducted by a third party, provide a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) executed between the sponsor and the third party. Also, provide a brochure or other published material from the third party sufficient to document that the third party provides such services.
- 7) If empowerment services are conducted by the sponsor, list the qualifications of the individual(s) performing the service. This can be in the form of a resume, counseling certifications or narrative. Representative published material, if any, should also be provided.

Underserved Communities and Populations

- Special Needs – Provide an explanation on how the number of special needs units was determined as well as evidence on the demand/need for assistance.
- Rural – Provide evidence that the project is located in a rural area from the USDA website.

Community Stability

- Rehabilitating Vacant, Abandoned or Foreclosed Properties - If “yes” is selected, the application provides a section where you can indicate how many of these properties have been identified and indicate if the sponsor has site control. If a majority of the properties needed to meet the 50% threshold have not yet been identified or are not controlled by the sponsor, it is unlikely the project will be awarded these points. Provide evidence the identified properties are vacant, abandoned or foreclosed. Documentation could be warranty deeds, settlement statements or tax records and photographs of the subject properties. Evidence of rehabilitation will be provided in the development cost budget and supporting construction bid(s) or a physical needs assessment.
- Demolition of Properties (not including vacant land) – If “yes” is selected, the application provides a section to indicate how many of these properties have been identified and indicate if the sponsor has site control. If a majority of the properties needed to meet the 20% demolition-to-new construction threshold have not yet been identified or are not controlled by the sponsor, it is unlikely the project will be awarded these points. Documentation needed includes bids for the demolition and photographs of the subject properties along with purchase and sale agreements, option to purchase agreements, warranty deeds, settlement statements or tax records that support ownership by the sponsor of the targeted properties.
- Community Revitalization: 100% of project units must be either: 1) located within the geographic boundaries defined by a community revitalization plan adopted by the municipality, county or parish in which the project is located; or
2) part of an approved resolution from the Governing Body of the municipality, county or parish expressly setting forth that the Governing Body supports the AHP application and that the project supports their community revitalization efforts. Provide documentation to support the project’s location within the geographic boundaries and/or the Governing Body’s approved resolution.

Common Mistakes/Questions

Owner Occupied Application Common Mistakes

1. Missing Support documents – Supporting documentation is a vital part of the application process. Without the documents, the Bank is unable to fully analyze your application.
2. Commitment Letters – Documentation for all committed/approved funding sources.
3. Timeliness - Please note that required documents must be uploaded prior to submission to the member.
4. Submit documentation supporting the percentage of donated property - fair market value, settlement statements, appraisals, etc. Please note that all property transfers must be “at-arms-length” from one party to another “unrelated” party. Units or land donated or conveyed to project should be an amount that is significantly (at least 50%) below fair market value.
5. Empowerment – Please provide support documents that validate the empowerment service provider’s ability to provide the “empowerment” service(s) committed to in the application. Documentation should include staff credentials, length of time to complete the course, copy of curriculum, where the training will occur, how individuals will access services, etc.
6. Evidence of demand – Documentation supporting “demand” in the service area(s) targeted. Applications need to demonstrate that “demand” exists for the type of housing proposed within the project’s target area. If you are not sure if your documentation is sufficient, please call us.
7. Prepare for requests for additional information/clarification - Clarifications allow the Bank to further understand and evaluate your project as well as to address discrepancies.
8. Detailed project description - A good description will be to the point and relate only to the project you are proposing. Please note your history with AHP or other similar projects under the “sponsor capacity” section of the application.
9. Construction Budget (if applicable) – It is key that the budget equal the costs entered in your application. For example, the “Sources & Uses of Funds” should equal the “Total Development Cost” on the application and construction budget submitted.

10. Affirmative Marketing – Outline the target audience, advertising outlets, the marketing duration and where information will be disseminated (flyers in libraries, senior centers, churches, etc.)
11. Sponsor Capacity – Ensure capacity is thoroughly documented and includes resumes and information describing sponsors and/or 3rd parties' past history with similar projects.
12. Community Stability – Please provide evidence that sponsor controls 20% of the vacant units to be demolished or rehabilitated. This can be in the form of Settlement statements or Warranty Deeds. Documentation for being part of a neighborhood stabilization, development area or revitalization should have a City/County adopted resolution or adopted plan that clearly delineates the targeted area(s). The project must be located within the targeted areas.
13. Rehabilitation Cost – Provide a narrative or information that describes how the project determined the rehabilitation cost per unit. Note, if the project sponsor is also the developer or contractor of the project and the total project cost per home exceeds $15,000, the Bank will utilize RSMeans construction cost data or require two independent bids as a benchmark to determine reasonable project costs.
14. Green/Fortified Housing – Provide a letter from the project architect or engineer outlining the certification plan. Note, include what documentation will be provided at the completion of construction/rehabilitation.

User Guide and Glossary

Grant Connect Guide

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas (Bank) Grant Connect Guide has been developed to assist you in the completion of your electronic Affordable Housing Program (AHP) Subsidy Application.

Grant Connect allows the user to:

- Create a new application
- View and update an existing application
- Email the AHP department
- Submit the required application documents
- Print the application
- Submit an application

Grant Connect provides a link to the AHP Implementation Plan. The AHP Implementation Plan gives detailed information on how the Bank will implement the Affordable Housing Program. It is imperative to read the Implementation Plan to understand how to comply with the requirements.

Create a New Application

When creating a new application, it is important to know the following items:

- Complete all sections of the current screen before moving on to the next screen.
- Click "Next". If the next button is not clicked, the work performed will be lost.
- There is a 15-minute time-out on each page. If you have a lot of text to type, type it on a separate word document. Then copy and paste the information into the applicable text box. In addition, please limit your use of special characters.

User Error Checks

The system will give you an error if a section within the application has been:

- Completed with the wrong format.
- Completed incorrectly or incompletely.
- Is inconsistent with another portion of the application.

You must correct the noted deficiency before you can advance to another page of the application. In addition, you must successfully correct the error message; otherwise, the input on that particular page will not be saved.

View and update an existing application

When updating an existing application, it is important to remember to:

- Click "Next" after every change is completed.
- When navigating from screen to screen, use the navigation bar located on the left-hand side of the screen to go to a specific screen.

User Access

- Customers (Members and non-members of the Bank) and Applicants (Sponsors and Consultants) may register to create or access AHP applications. Consultants (also referred to in this User Guide as “non-sponsors”) should register under the organization they are employed by, not the Sponsor organization they are working with on an AHP application. The Non-Sponsor will have the ability to select the appropriate Sponsor organization for each application.

Example:

John Smith works for Smith Consulting. He will be submitting AHP applications for two different Sponsor Organizations, Hope Foundation and Faith Foundation. Mr. Smith will register as a user under “Smith Consulting” (a non-sponsor organization). Mr. Smith will then initiate application #1 and will select Hope Foundation as the Sponsor Organization within the application. Mr. Smith will also initiate application #2 but will select Faith Foundation as the Sponsor Organization within the application.

- Members, Sponsors, and Non-Sponsors have the capability to view the application during the application process. However, users who registered against a member organization do not have write capabilities unless the member organization initiated the application. Only the users who registered against the organization that initiated the application can update or make changes to the application.
- Your application is protected through the use of a PIN that you create at application. You should share your application PIN with the sponsor and member users as the PIN is required to review and approve your application.
- Users registered against a sponsor organization cannot make any changes to the application once it has been submitted to the member for review. If the member rejects the application, you will regain write access to make any applicable changes.
- The Bank AHP staff also has the capability to view the application. The Bank AHP staff is available to assist members and sponsors with questions regarding their application.

Application Initiation

There are four ways to initiate an application: Non-Sponsor Initiated, Sponsor Initiated, Member Initiated, and Member Initiated No Sponsor.

1. Non-Sponsor Initiated – An application with this status will typically have been created by a consultant. The user should have registered against their own organization (not the sponsor organization associated with the application) and can update or make changes to the application. Upon submission, the application will go to “Awaiting Sponsor Acceptance” status. An email notification will be sent to the Sponsor contact and the non-sponsor contact to notify them of the status. If you are unsure whether you should create a non-sponsor- initiated application, please contact the Community Investment Department at 1-800-362-2944.
2. Sponsor Initiated – In this status, only users who registered against their own sponsor organization can update or make changes to the application. Upon submission, the application will go to “Awaiting Member Review” status. An email notification will be sent to the Member contact and the Sponsor contact to notify them of the status.
3. Member Initiated - In this status, only users who registered against the member organization can update or make changes to the application. The Member has selected a sponsor associated with the application. Upon submission, the application will go to “Awaiting Sponsor Acceptance” status. An email notification will be sent to the Member contact and the Sponsor contact to notify them of the status.
4. Member Initiated No Sponsor – This status indicates that a member has initiated an application and has selected “No Sponsor”. The member is assumed to be the sponsor for the project and can send it to the Bank upon completion of the application. Upon submission, the application will go to “Submitted to FHLB” status. An email notification will be sent to the Member contact to notify them of the status.

Application Statuses

There are four application statuses: Awaiting Member Review, Awaiting Sponsor Acceptance, Awaiting Member Final Review, and Submitted to FHLB.

1. Awaiting Sponsor Acceptance – This status indicates that either the member or a non-sponsor has initiated the application on behalf of the sponsor and is waiting for the sponsor to review and approve the application.
